Social media does not amuse the city topper

DEEBA GOYAL

Deeba secured 100 marks in business studies, accountancy and economics. She opted for mathematics as an optional subject in which she scored 90 marks and 85 in English. Deeba's aim is to pursue MBA from IIM. She said her success mantra was seven hours of self-study. "I do not have a Facebook account and I am not on any social media. I do not like watching TV and for the past time I read books," she added. She likes to play badminton, but quit it a year ago. Giving credit to her teachers and parents, she said one should utilise time effectively and efficiently. Her father Rajiv Goyal is a vastu consultant and mother Rachna Goyal a homemaker. Her parents said they kept her morale up and motivated her to do her best.

'Limited study with 100% dedication' pays off

GUNPREET KAUR

Daughter of hosiery goods manufacturer Ravinder Singh and Dr BR Ambedkar SS High School, Model Town, teacher Davinder Kaur, Gunpreet wants to be a software engineer. In Class X too, she bagged 10 CGPA and in JEE-Mains she scored 239 marks of 360. She is awaiting JEE-Advance result. Passionate about gardening and painting, she dedicated her success to her late grandfather Amrik Singh, who used to pick her up and drop her to school and looked after her academics. Her mantra is limited study with 100% dedication.
